AIL AT A GLANCE

The Army Institute of Law (AIL) is a private unaided institute which was established in July 1999 by the Indian Army under the aegis of the Army Welfare Education Society (AWES) at its interim location at Patiala. The Institute is permanently affiliated to The Punjabi University, Patiala and approved by the Bar Council of India. In July 2003, the Institute shifted to its current location at Sector 68, Mohali, Punjab. On 01 December, 2003, the Mohali Campus was inaugurated by H.E. Dr. APJ Abdul Kalam, the then President of India. AIL has a magnificent residential campus in an impressive architectural structure in the vicinity of Chandigarh and Punjab & Haryana High Court. It conducts a five year BA LLB and one year LLM course.

AIL has emerged as a hub of scholastic brilliance and owes this to a team of highly qualified and erudite faculty members who lend a critical perspective to contemporary issues facilitating students' comprehension and interpretation of various laws and statutes. With 'Aspire & Achieve' as its motto, the Institute has grown as a Centre of Excellence in the field of legal education. Army Institute of Law continues to pace ahead on the growth trajectory in consonance with the highest standards in the field of education. This is amplified in its aims and objectives, pedagogical practices, infrastructure and other features, that facilitate learning. The initiative to start other Law related courses like B Com LLB (Five Year) Course is under active consideration.

1. Vision

"To nurture in the young minds, the tenets of justice, equity and conscience."

2. Mission

- (a) To impart high quality, comprehensive and interdisciplinary legal education, research and practical analysis to enable the students towards application of the knowledge of law and justice as an instrument of social, political and economic change.
- (b) To promote among the students, academic excellence, discipline, personal character, high sense of ethical and moral values, rule of law and the objectives enshrined in the Constitution of India.
- (c) To produce law graduates possessing the core competencies essential to embark on the practice of law, Judicial or Civil services, or as officers in the Armed forces and Corporate sector.
- (d) To promote co-curricular activities for holistic personality development of the students.
- (e) To strive to be a centre of excellence in the field of legal education by adopting all such things as are necessary and contribute to the attainment of all or any of the above objectives as an institution of higher learning.

3. Courses Offered

- BA LLB (Five Yr): By the time a student completes the five year integrated programme he/she is expected to be adequately equipped with knowledge of law required to become a full-fledged responsible member of the legal profession.
- LLM (One Yr): The LLM course has been adopted with the objective of imparting in depth knowledge in the field of law with specializations. The Programme is designed to put students on a strong footing to undertake jobs in teaching and other sectors at the National and International level. Students are awarded the Post Graduate Degree after successful completion of the one year programme.

4. Course Curriculum

- BA LLB Five Yr
 - LLM One Yr
- } Refer page No. 34.

5. Pedagogy

The pedagogy at the Army Institute of law is regularly adapted to suit the students who are at the Institute from across India. The faculty provides course readings to the students, drawing from their research outcomes to help them have a fresh outlook towards the latest legal developments, and develop in them a habit to think outside the box. In the practical sense every area of Law and every skill required by a student in his/her professional life cannot be taught but the focus at the Army Institute is to train students to become lifelong learners through discipline, hard work and practice. The academic environment encourages individual as well as group thinking so as to get the passing out batch in a state of cohesiveness to achieve success in their future professional lives.

6. Attendance Rules

- Minimum 75% attendance is mandatory as per University rules to appear in the semester examination.
- Condonation of absence due to medical reasons or absence due to representing AIL at various events will be granted only as per existing rules.

7. Criteria for Promotion to Next Class

Promotion from lower to higher class is regulated strictly according to Punjabi University rules. A student has to pass minimum 50% of the papers in the previous years to be promoted to the Next year.

8. Internships

Internships are governed and guided by the Bar Council of India (BCI). The Institute endeavours to help students to get internships with Law Firms and Corporate Houses.

9. Placements

The Institute takes pride in announcing good placements over the last couple of years for those students who opted for campus placements. The Institute's placement cell headed by a placement officer helps students in securing placements with Law Firms and Corporate Houses. Students from AIL have paved their footprints across top tier Law Firms and Corporate Houses.

CENTRES @ AIL

(a) Centre for Research in Corporate Law & Governance (CRCLG)

Centre for research in Corporate Law & Governance (CRCLG), is created with the objective to promote interdisciplinary research in the field of corporate law & governance. The purpose of the CRCLG focuses on following aspects:

- To promote comprehensive research preparing the students for viewing the world in an interdisciplinary manner, endowing them with analytical skills to critically evaluate laws on corporate law & governance.
- To conduct study of corporate law and governance within its economic, business and legal context, with particular regard to how corporate law and governance mechanisms facilitate or inhibit economic activity.
- To provide a new way of thinking about the growing challenges in corporate law & governance and how to respond to them.
- To conduct workshops, seminars, conferences, panel discussions, guest lecturers in order to adopt an explicitly comparative approach and develop strategies for ensuring sustainable development and success in the most competitive world. .

(b) AIL Centre for Research in Social Sciences (ACRSS)

The Army Institute of Law, Centre for Research in Social Sciences has been conceptualized with the objective to sensitize the youth towards social concerns which plague the contemporary society and equip them efficiently deal with these concerns by facilitating academic research across multiple disciplines. The centre aims to:

- Foster a scientific temper, humanism and the spirit of inquiry in the students, as well as promote constructive dialogue through debates, group discussions and interactive lectures that focus on economy, polity, psychology, and other relevant disciplines.
- Introduce a hands-on approach to learning, as well as acquaint the students to the ground realities by conducting field trips to sites of historical and cultural significance, shelter homes, rehabilitation centres etc, and documenting the same through videos.
- Cultivate a new outlook towards Social Sciences by imparting a better understanding of research methodologies.
- Promote an interest in vernacular languages and provide a conducive environment for distinct cultural identities to coexist and flourish.

(c) Centre for Research in Constitutional Law and Policy (CRCLP)

Centre for Research in Constitutional Law and Policy (CRCLP) has been established with an objective to provide a platform to the students to bring forth their ideas on recent developments on constitutional law and promote research on constitutional and policy matters. CRCLP aims to initiate a dialogue on contemporary constitutional dynamics with maximum students' participation. With the motto Labor Omnia Vincit (work conquers all), the Centre vigorously works to enrich constitutional scholarship in an innovative way via offline and online mediums. Centre also provides assistance to students participating in various moot courts, quiz competitions, judgment writing competitions etc. Thereby, Centre aims to ignite a sense of inquiry and critical legal aptitude amongst students while analyzing the constitutional developments around them.

(d) AIL Centre for Gender Justice (ACGJ)

The Army Institute of Law Centre for Gender Justice entails to end or atleast tries to end the inequalities between men and women, and amongst those who do not correlate to any socially defined genders. We at ACGJ aim to promote equality among all genders, and make the college and the society, a more progressive environment to live in. Gender equality is fundamentally linked to human development and human rights. We wish to expand opportunities for all genders and create better opportunities for them, without any bias. We aim to limit the patriarchal hierarchy and empower women and their independence, and to decentralise rigid gender roles and stereotypes. We want to bring a positive and reformative change in the society, and free people from the vicious cycle of discrimination.

SOCIETIES @ AIL

(a) AIL Moot Court Society (AMCS)

Mooting is the oral presentation of a legal issue or problem against an opposing counsel and before a Judge. It is perhaps the closest experience that a student can have whilst at university to appearing in a Court. Mooting helps in building the confidence in public speaking, general research, and presentation skills. Keeping in mind the relevance of mooting for law students the Army Institute of Law takes keen interest in this segment of law-learning via its Moot Court Society whereby two Intra-Institute Moot Court Competitions are conducted annually. One of these is the Novices Moot Court Competition which is held exclusively for the participation of First year students with the aim of making them shed their inhibitions regarding mooting. The other competition is the Intra-Institute Moot Court Competition which is open for participation by students from second year to the fifth year. The Institute is also a proud host of its Annual National Inter-College Moot Court Competition-Checkmate, in which teams from various National and other prestigious law colleges participate. From the academic year 2019-20, Army Institute of Law in collaboration with Surana & Surana International Attorneys, initiated with another National Level Moot Court Competition-Surana & Surana and Army Institute of Law National Family Law Moot Court Competition. The Institute awards the winners of the competition with certificates, cash prizes and a running trophy. Besides hosting these events the institute also participates in various National and International Moot Court Competitions.

(b) AIL Debating Society (DEBSOC)

The AIL debating society encourages students to develop their oratory skills by their participation in various Intra and inter institute debates, extempore competitions and MUNs. An Intra-Institute Debate is organized every year to encourage maximum participation of the students. The Institute awards the winners of the competition with cash prizes and a running trophy.

(c) AIL Research Society (AILRS)

AIL Research Society (AILRS), is created with the objective to promote interdisciplinary research in the field of law. The purpose of the AILRS is to focus on following aspects:

- To promote authentic authorship.
- To encourage more participation of students in main-stream research.
- To promote better understanding of law and inculcate the knowledge in research.
- To improve legal writing skills.
- Identify and use primary and secondary legal authorities appropriately.
- To conduct guest lecturers and to guide students to do research in effective manner.

(d) AIL Eco Club (AEC)

Eco Club at Army Institute of Law is a body of resolute students and teachers committed to creating a green campus. The club's goal is to create a sustainable ecosystem in the institute by raising awareness and encouraging eco-friendly habits among students and faculty. Founded to deal with all environment related concerns of the institute the club stands by its motto- "It Starts with YOU". It further endeavours to sensitise everyone to the environmental hazards that pose a great danger to Mother Earth.

(e) AIL Legal Aid Cell (ALAC)

The avowed purpose of the Legal Aid Cell is to promote access to the legal system, whereby every person has access to the legal process irrespective of social or economic incapacity. The Army Institute of Law Legal Aid Cell is headed by the faculty coordinator and students. The cell endeavors to sensitize students to the problems being faced by the indigent and inculcate a sense of social responsibility in the students. Further, the course is meant to act as a platform for introducing the students to functioning of the legal system. The Legal Aid Initiative at AIL has been fashioned not as a mere means of aiding litigation, but as an outreach program directed at community welfare. Since a majority of our fellow countrymen do not enjoy easy access to legal services, the cell seeks to address this problem by dispensing free legal and para-legal services. The mandate of AIL Legal Aid seeks to:

- Assist the general public in better interpretation of the rights bestowed upon them and spread awareness.
- Play a constructive role in counseling people opting for legal recourse.
- To encourage pre-litigation services and out of Court settlements.
- To undertake research and development programs, while also serving as a depository of legal matters.
- To serve as a potent platform where people can inquire about their grievances in person or through the online portal.

The college also encourages students to participate in cultural and sports activities.

(f) AIL Cultural Society (ACS)

Cultural activities immensely impact a student's life and have a bearing on their overall personality; it strengthens their self confidence, develops specialized skills, team spirit and a sense of responsibility and hard-work. The cultural society of AIL provides a platform to 'AILIANS' for showing their talent through many inter and intra college competition and events.

D.O. No U-15/2021(ARC)

Respected Madam/Sir

In pursuance to the Judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India dated 08/05/2019 (SCOR, Appeal No. 487/2019), the UGC had notified "Regulations on Curbing the Menace of Ragging in Higher Educational Institutions, 2019". The Regulations are available on the UGC website (www.ugc.ac.in). These regulations are mandatory for all higher educational institutions across the country.

As multiple mechanisms are required to ensure a ragging-free campus, there are some key recommendations and action steps which are need to be taken by your esteemed university and all institutions under your ambit.

A. Basic Measures:

1. Enactment of anti-ragging committee and ragging squad, setting up of Anti-Ragging Cell and adequate budgets for these measures through various means.
2. A clear mention of anti-ragging warning in the institution's prospectus and information leaflets/brochures shall be ensured.
3. Preparation of re-admission policy/ procedure, leaflets at your institutions giving detailed guidance to admitted students in case of ragging, instead of pro-land only.
4. Display of warning posters at conspicuous places of the campus to create awareness on anti-ragging measures amongst students (soft copies of the posters attached are also available on UGC website www.ugc.ac.in or www.anti-ragging.in).
5. Update of websites of institutions with the complete address and contact details of nodal officers to the UGC anti-ragging committee.
6. An office undertaking in every academic year to be submitted by each student and every parent in compliance with the UGC Regulations and its 7th Amendment regarding submission of undertaking.
7. UGC has notified 11th Amendment in UGC Regulations on 19th Feb, 2016 to expand the definition of ragging to include the following:

1. To do act of physical or mental abuse (bullying, hazing and extortion) targeted at another student or students or otherwise on the ground of caste, race, religion, caste ethnicity, gender, including transgender, sexual orientation, physical and mental disability, regional origin, linguistic identity, place of birth, place of residence or economic status and;
8. Installation of CCTV cameras at vital points.
9. Counseling and monitoring measures:
 1. Regular interaction and counseling with the students to detect early signs of ragging and identification of trouble triggers.
 2. Strict supervision at hostel, students' accommodation, canteens, mess, recreation rooms, in libraries and any other measure which would help in preventing/ quelling ragging and any unethical behaviour thereat.

P.C.C.

CONTINUATION SHEET

-02-

- C. Creative Dissemination of the idea of ragging-free campus
1. Events like Anti-Ragging workshops, seminars and other creative avenues to spread the idea
 2. Notices and security apps without affecting the privacy of individuals can be creatively deployed.
- D. Using other UGC initiated measures
1. Students in distress due to ragging related incidents can call the National Anti-Ragging Helpline 1800-180 5522 (24x7 Toll Free) or e-mail the Anti-Ragging Helpline at help@anti-ragging.in.
 2. For any other information regarding ragging, please visit the UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in & www.anti-ragging.in and contact UGC monitoring agency i.e. Centre for Youth on mobile No. (098)19344577 (only in case of emergency).
 3. UGC also drives an Anti-Ragging Media Campaign through different modes and has undertaken following activities to promote anti-ragging which are available on UGC website i.e. www.ugc.ac.in
 1. UGC has developed 04 TVCs of 30 seconds each from different perspectives i.e. Parents, Victim and Offenders
 2. UGC has designed and distributed posters amongst Universities/Regulatory Authorities/Committees/HFAs & Other educational institutions for prominent display
 3. UGC has successfully organized 07 Anti-Ragging Competitions for students/ faculty general public to the wider awareness of the menace of ragging

Any violation of UGC Regulations or failure of institution to take adequate steps to prevent ragging in accordance with these Regulations or failure to punish perpetrators of incidents of ragging suitably will attract punitive action under the UGC Act.

You are also requested to Ed on the compliance on www.anti-ragging.in and also immediately instruct all the colleges/institutes under their purview to follow it.

With kind regards,

Yours sincerely,

(Rajnish Jain)
